60th Anniversary Spotlight: Mrs. Jackie Ewig

As St. Emily School celebrates 60 years, the wonderful staff will be spotlighted.

The next spotlight is Mrs. Jackie Ewig, who has been teaching at St. Emily since 2006. She is also a St. Emily graduate of the Class of 1996. Her younger brothers were in the SES classes of 1998 and 2000 and two of her three children attended SES Prek through third grades.

She is currently the first grade teacher, but has also taught third, fifth and sixth grades. If she had to describe the school with one word it would be "Community." Her favorite St. Emily event is May Crowning. She said, "I attended Illinois State University from 2000-2004; I married my husband, Mark, at St. Emily Church in 2006 and I have three kids: Samantha (9), Austin (6), and Mason (3)."

"She always explains things really easy for me to understand and does it in a funny way," Zach, 1st grade, said.

"She always gives us fun activities to do and helps us when we don't understand things. I liked when she let us play on the red and blue playground!" said Abby, 2nd grade.

"She is kind, thoughtful and if you make a mistake she lets you redo it," said Alex, 2nd grade.

"Mrs. Ewig always makes me feel special and is super nice," Gia, 3rd grade, said.

"I am very luck to have Mrs. Ewig for my teacher. She makes it fun in class even during Covid," Sofia, 1st grade, said.
